

Chapman Sailing Certification

CSC 100 - Sailing Fundamentals

Total: 2 Days

Educational Objectives

This is the first certification level in the CSC series and has been specifically designed to provide the fundamentals of boating safety and “on the water skills.” It provides the foundation for future learning and is geared toward those individuals who are new to sailing as well as experienced sailors with no prior formal training. Through the Chapman School unique “Learn at the Helm”™ teaching, students are able to combine elements taught in the classroom with underway practice onboard one of Chapman School’s fleet training vessels.

Course Description

Training includes classroom and underway sail boat handling. This intensive 16 hour course may be taken as a stand alone program and is a prerequisite for the CSC 200 Sailboat Handling program.
